

NIMS ICS 300 & ICS 400 COURSE SCHEDULE

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

These courses are recommended for attendance by supervisory level personnel assigned to the Fire Service, Emergency Medical Services, Law Enforcement, Emergency Management, Public Health, Public Works and Social Services.

Key personnel from the Medical Reserve Corps, CERT, American Red Cross and other VOAD and disaster response organizations are also encouraged to attend.

COURSE HIGHLIGHTS: These 3-day courses are VDEM approved and taught by certified instructors. The courses are free to students and student materials are provided. The parking is free. Classes run from 8:30 am to 5:30 pm.

PREREQUISITES: Student in both courses must complete ICS 100, 200, 700 & 800. ICS-400 students must also complete the ICS-300 course. All prerequisites must be completed before the start of the course.

2024 COURSE DATES

ICS 300 COURSES:

February 27-29; June 26-28; October 22-24

ICS 400 COURSES:

April 24-25; August 28-29; December 4-5

To Register:

Go to the Training Calendar at: www.tidewaterems.org

Or call (757) 963-0632